

Women Authorities of the PAIGH

Jean Wintemute
(United States of America)

President of the Geography Commission, 2013-2017, and Vice President of the Geography Commission, 2017-2021, of this institution.

Geographer who in 2010 and 2013 was coordinator of the PAIGH projects: Workshop on data integration and technical capacity building in Central America and Initiative for the integration of geospatial data in Central America, the result of both being the Integrated Map of Central America.

Program Director of the Interior Department of the International Technical Assistance Program (ITAP). Senior International Specialist for the United States Geological Survey's Land Remote Sensing Program. Leader of the Group on Earth Observation System of Systems (GEOSS). She was also Coordinator of Geographic Research for the U.S. Border and Internal Manager at the Texas Mapping Partnership office at the same institution.

“Science in the Service of Peace”