

Women Authorities of the PAIGH

Patricia Galeana Herrera
(México)

President of the History Commission of the PAIGH (2013-2021). Since 2008, through the Institute's Committee on Comparative History of the Americas, she has developed a project that to date has published seven volumes that refer to a study of the Americas from various perspectives: philosophical, historical, political, legal, and economic.

Master's degree in Mexican History and PhD in Latin American Studies from the UNAM. Professor at various national and international universities. Researcher at the UNAM Institute of Historical Research. Academic Coordinator of the Dr. José Ma. Luis Mora Research Institute; Director General of Academic Exchange at UNAM; Director General of the Diplomatic Historical Archive of the Mexican Foreign Ministry; among other important positions and author of country.

Author and co-author of multiple works, articles, and specialized essays.

Her contributions in the field of education and civic training are noteworthy, as is her outstanding career in the defense of national sovereignty.

“Science in the Service of Peace”