

BEAUBRUN ARDOUIN

Politician and Historian
(Haiti, 1796-1865)

GALLERY
of HISTORIANS and GEOGRAPHERS of AMERICA

As a Historian, he placed the Haitian revolution in context with other nationalist movements of America. Being self-taught, he worked as a typesetter for the “L' Éclaireur” newspaper and later in various posts of a political nature. He participated in several negotiations with France in order to achieve the emancipation of Haiti, and later he wrote about these in some of his written publications.

*Wrote: Abrégé de la Géographie d'Haiti / Études
sur L 'Histoire D'Haiti / Géographie de L'île D' Haïti / Instrutions sur Le jury.*